We Want You!

We have folks that live in parts of the state we don't usually visit. I would like to set up at least one tour in such an area. I need members to suggest some areas of interest to old car buffs and their families. Knowledge of the area is critical. Anybody can read a travel brochure or website.

I would like some participation from YOU, otherwise I will select areas that I am familiar with which will be areas we have frequented over the past several years.

I receive comments from time to time that we don't visit someone's hometown or area and I have observed that many members are silent and don't share the treasures in their localities.
