From Behind the Steering Wheel

with Bill Anderson

Finished those Thanksgiving Turkey Day leftovers, yet? Better hurry, there are family pets willing to devour them quickly. And, if you don't have hungry pets, I'm sure someone will loan you theirs for clean-up duty.

Ok, what's new?

Contacts and Conversations regarding next Summer's Central Mini-Meet August 14 & 15, 2026 have been made. The folks at Sloan and Back to the Bricks have agreed to find room for our group at their venues. There are many additional details to be ironed out, however, as there are other activities in the Flint area that weekend. Look for an advertisement announcing the Mini-Meet by February 2026 issue of G&D, in addition to future editions of this newsletter.

The July 12-17, 2026 65th VCCA Anniversary Meet is looking for donations and sponsors. Your LMR Board has elected to donate club funds to the meet. The Anniversary Meet Organizers will also accept additional donations from individual members. Contact me for details and I'll forward you that information.

Awards Banquet:

Pat Mehl found a venue for the Spring Banquet, April 25th. Location is the Winter Inn in Greenville, MI. We will have a club business meeting at the same venue. Stay tuned for details in future issues.

Dust-Off & Mothball Tours Dates are settled.

Tim & Pat Mehl are reviewing some of the tour suggestions submitted to your officers, and will have news by January or February. Don't be surprised if we get to visit Michigan's Thumb.

There is still time to renew your LMR membership. Your membership expiration date appears on your printed Chevy Chatter copy. If you receive an email copy, I will be sending you an email reminder of your status. Pat Mehl is taking over the membership activity Jan 1, so you can submit your renewals to her after that date. The new membership form and mailing address will be included in the January Chatter.

Until then, you can fill my mailbox with renewals.
